PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAML-TOMLIN Announces Acquisition of company specializing in bathing and showering systems that promotes personal health and well-being.

Lyster, Quebec, Canada, November 1, 2011 - Leading manufacturer of acrylic bathtubs in Canada, CAML-TOMLIN is proud to announce the acquisition of ACRYLINE, a Quebec company whose expertise is dedicated to the design of therapeutic bathtubs and acrylic products that promote health and wellness.

This acquisition brings CAML-TOMLIN back to its origins and reinforce its presence in North America. The purchase of ACRYLINE enables CAML-TOMLIN, leading manufacturer of acrylic bathtubs in Canada, to significantly expand its product offering. ACRYLINE has an excellent reputation in the design of therapeutic bathtubs and acrylic products that promote health and wellness.

"This business arrangement represents a strategic and symbiotic addition to our overall product offering, as well as a considerable increase in our market share," explains Jean-Louis Cloutier, President of CAML-TOMLIN. "Acryline offers our group not only a complementary range of products, but also solid expertise acquired over the past forty years, complete with a variety of proprietary techniques and patented designs."
